Here's The Piano Lesson, one of Henri Matisse's most famous paintings. The boy in the picture is the painter's son, Pierre. In the picture, Pierre looks quite serious. Why? Well, look at the yellow candle on the red piano. It's almost burned down. So maybe Pierre has already practiced for hours. And Matisse uses a lot of gray, not a very fun color, right? It shows how the poor kid feels, don't you think?

On the top right corner, you can see a woman sitting straight on a seat. Is she Pierre's piano teacher? Or his mother? Well, if you're a Matisse fan, you'll know this is in fact another painting by him, Woman on a High Stool. Interest a lot. In fact, there's another work by Matisse in the sculpture on the bottom left corner!

Matisse painted this picture in 1916. Pierre painted his son much younger than he had gone away to be a father. Whether he would come back was his father's way to remember.

代詞指涉

23. What does do that mean in the reading?

- (A) Put his family in his paintings.
- (B) Paint to remember the good old days.
- (C) Use a lot of fun colors in his art works.
- (D) Put his earlier art work in a new painting.

24. What is NOT used in the reading to refer to Henri Matisse?

- (A) The artist.
- (B) The painter.
- (C) The poor kid.
- (D) A worried father.

Darayya's Library

John Edwards, July 21 2016

指出 文意結構

In Darayya, a city in Syria, there's a library, and it has 15,000 books on almost every subject you can think of. However, it is different from any libraries you know: It is a secret underground library, and only people in Darayya know where it is.

Over the years, war has shaken Darayya badly. Every day, houses are bombed and people are killed. Stores are closed one after another, and so are schools. To help the kids in Darayya with their learning, Anas Ahmad, a 19-year-old student, and his friends decided to build a library. They built the library under the ground to keep it safe from bombing. But it is dangerous to collect books for the library. Often, Ahmad and his friends look for books in houses that were bombed. They need to be careful because they may be

You may ask, "In a place like Darayya, where there is no electricity, no running water, and no schools, how can people have a better life after war?"

32. Below are the ideas that are talked about in the reading.

- The problems Darayya has.
- How Darayya's library was started.
- What makes Darayya's library special.
- How Darayya's library helps people there.

In what order does the writer put his ideas in the reading?

- (A) c→b→a→d. (B) b→a→d→c. (C) a→c→b→d. (D) c→a→b→d.

Subject: Daniel's 5th Birthday Party – This Saturday!

Hello Dave,

We're happy to invite you and your family to Daniel's fifth birthday party this Saturday.

We know we told you that the party would be in 35. However, we just moved to Carlton City last month, so the party won't be in Pattersons Town. It'll be at Mosman Garden right next to Victor Zoo, just across from our new apartment. Please don't go to Northbank Park next to our old house.

The weather report said that it may be rainy this weekend, but 36. If it rains, we'll move the party inside our home. However, if we're 37 and it is fine, we'll still have the party at the garden.

Again, we're all very happy and excited to welcome you to join us for some fun this weekend!

Best,
Mia, Sam & Daniel

(C) we should be fine if the rain isn't too heavy
(D) we will let you know if we'll still have the party
37. (A) crazy
(B) good
(C) lucky
(D) strong

Usually I wouldn't cross the park at this time of night. But walking around the park would take more time, and it was raining so hard that I couldn't even see clearly what was right before me. So I entered the park. And that was the first stupid thing I did tonight.

Soon after I walked into the park, I saw a man under a tree up ahead. My heart fell. The stories I'd heard about the park 38 into my head at this moment. Anyone with a clear mind would just turn back. But me? No. I did 39 stupid thing: I decided to hurry past him.

Just when I was passing the man, he raised his head and gave me the strangest smile ever. I got scared and started running. "Hey!" the man shouted from behind. "Wait!" He was running after me!

I ran like crazy. I had hoped the trees would keep some rain off. And they 40. But they also made the park look even darker. I couldn't see what was ahead of me. Then, I ran into something. It was the man!

"Don't kill me!" I cried.

"What? I 41 to give back your bag! You dropped it," the man gave me my bag.

Now, I felt saying that to the man was the stupidest thing I did tonight.

Joey: Lynn, have you tried Caldron? I've heard that restaurant is good.

Lynn: I have. I went there once for Tom's party.

Joey: And?

Lynn: Well, I never thought I would have to cook for myself when eating out.

Joey: But it's fun to cook your own food.

Lynn: I don't see any fun in that. Besides, I want nice food.

Joey: So you didn't like the food there?

Lynn: Everything tasted the same. I mean, they were all cooked in the same boiling pot. How could they taste different? I just kept throwing strange things into the pot. I didn't even know what half the things were made of.

Joey: Don't worry. Everything should be safe to eat after a hot bath in the pot. And you didn't get sick after that, right? Besides, you tried something different there. Still a good experience, I think?

Lynn: I don't think we share the same idea of good experience.

I was very sad to hear what happened to Woollie yesterday. Woollie was my favorite sheep. I have a storybook about Woollie. It says when Woollie was four, he ran away from Mr. Armstrong's farm, and it took Mr. Armstrong six years to find Woollie. But Woollie had grown so much fleece that he didn't even look like a sheep. Mr. Armstrong decided to cut his fleece on TV so everyone could see. Daddy said this happened on the day I was born. Woollie's fleece weighed 27 kg, and could make clothes for 20 large men. I asked Daddy if his favorite vest was made from Woollie's fleece. Daddy said no, because Woollie's fleece was sold to collect money for sick kids. In the storybook, Woollie was taken to see Ms. Stella Clark, the leader of our city then. They even had tea together. Daddy said Woollie did meet her. I'm not sure if they had tea. Daddy said Woollie was too sick and there was no way to help him. I hope Woollie will be happy up there in the sky.

On Teachers' Day, we thank our teachers for their hard work. We also celebrate this day to remember Confucius, the great Chinese teacher from 2,500 years ago. Well, that's everything we're taught about Teachers' Day. But, the first Teachers' Day was not on Confucius's birthday, and it was not about thanking our teachers.

In 1930, Mr. Tai Shuang-qiu and other teachers celebrated the first Teachers' Day in Nanjing. But there was nothing to celebrate. Teachers were paid very little and not respected. These teachers took this chance to shout out their problems. They had Teachers' Day on June 6 because the date was easy to remember and near the end of the school year. This action by Mr. Tai and the other teachers was welcomed and followed by teachers from other cities. In 1939, the government made Teachers' Day a national holiday. However, it was on August 27, the day when Confucius's birthday was celebrated. Not everyone hailed this decision: Teachers' Day was never about Confucius, and Confucius couldn't speak for all the teachers either.

One funny thing was that the government celebrated Teachers' Day on Confucius's birthday. In 1952, people found out that this was not the original intention. That was when we started to celebrate Teachers' Day on a different date. Confucius's birthday is on September 28. That was when we started to celebrate Teachers' Day on a different date.

26. Which is true about Teachers' Day from the reading?
- (A) It used to be celebrated on different dates.
 - (B) It was started by students for their teachers.
 - (C) It has been celebrated in Nanjing for over 2,500 years.
 - (D) Teachers decided to celebrate it on Confucius's birthday.

I was very sad to hear what happened to Woollie yesterday. Woollie was my favorite sheep. I have a storybook about Woollie. It says when Woollie was four, he ran away from Mr. Armstrong's farm, and it took Mr. Armstrong six years to find Woollie. But Woollie had grown so much fleece that he didn't even look like a sheep. Mr. Armstrong decided to cut his fleece on TV so everyone could see. Daddy said this happened on the day I was born. Woollie's fleece weighed 27 kg, and could make clothes for 20 large men. I asked Daddy if his favorite vest was made from Woollie's fleece. Daddy said no, because Woollie's fleece was sold to collect money for sick kids. In the storybook, Woollie was taken to see Ms. Stella Clark, the leader of the Sick Children's Fund, together. Daddy said Woollie and Ms. Clark were sure if they had tea. Daddy said Woollie was too sick and there was no chance he would be happy up there in the sky.

W: Why are we moving so slowly?

M: Do you see the sign there? It looks like there is some roadwork ahead. I guess they must be fixing the bridge that was washed away during the last typhoon.

W: Oh no, we're not going to miss our plane because of this, are we?

M: Don't worry, let's take another road.

Question: What sign did the man see?

Two white doves are captured in flight against a clear, bright blue sky. The dove in the foreground is shown from a low angle, with its wings fully extended, revealing the intricate structure of its feathers. Its head is turned slightly to the right. A second dove is visible in the upper right background, also in flight. The overall scene conveys a sense of peace and freedom.
